Georgetown Takes Game

On Saturday afternoon our team met the Georgetown University team. As the Star expressed it, Georgetown "broke the hatchet" and George Washington went down in defeat to the score of 13 to 3. The boys did well but they showed little confidence and steadiness and it seemed that they were defeated from the moment the game started. Georgetown was at it's best. Capt. Morgan for the first time this year was back in the game at his old position at third, giving Georgetown one of the strongest infields in the country. The heavy hitters of Georgetown too were out for hits and it was impossible to stop them.

The attendance at the game was large and included many rooters for both teams. The buff and blue and the gray and blue were constantly in view and pennants were waved at all stages of the game. A number of George Washington boys secured a tally-ho and drove onto the field in great style. Throughout the entire game they were heard and the team never lacked for encouragement.

Hutchinson who was slated to pitch for George Washington did not show up and Holland was put into do the box work. With the exception of one inning, the seventh, he kept the hits well scattered and with perfect support would have allowed only a few runs. In the seventh he weakened and Georgetown banged out the ball in every direction. Hart started off with a home run and man after man hit the ball fair. When the onslaught was ended and the third man was out, six runs had crossed the plate. After that inning Thomas was substituted and during the time he pitched no runs were made by Georgetown.

Drennan in the box for Georgetown pitched a splendid game. Up into the seventh inning he allowed only two men to reach first base. In the seventh a couple of errors and two hits gave the buff and blue their only runs. In all Drennan only allowed three clean hits off his delivery.

The fielding of both teams was good. Morgan and Smith at third and short for Georgetown did splendid work and Bielaski at short played the best game for George Washington accepting nine chances, some of them difficult ones.

Asquith showed up well at the bat getting two hits off Drennan and Bielaski secured a two bagger. For Georgetown Hart and Larkin got home runs, Scheller a three bagger and Morgan a two bagger.

First inning. Price went out from Morgan to Larkin. Bradley flied out to Larkin, and Stevenson sent a pop fly up to Morgan. For Georgetown Larkin was given, his base on balls. Keane hit to left. White fanned, Hart hit to Van Vliet, who fumbled, and the bases were full. Morgan hit to left and both Larkin and Keane crossed the rubber. Burns struck out and Smith flied out to Bielaski. Score—Georgetown, 2; George Washington, 0.

Second inning. Bielaski went out from short to first. Weber flied out to first. McMahon went out from Morgan to Larkin. Scheller, the first man up for Georgetown, smashed the ball to right field for three bases. Drennan walked. Larkin sacrificed Drennan to second, Scheller scoring. Keane hit to left and Drennan scored. White went out from third to first, and Morgan flied out to third.

Third inning. Asquith struck out. Van Vliet flied out to third. Holland hit to Larkin and was out at first. Morgan, for the blue and gray, hit to third. Burns went out from second to first on a sacrifice and Morgan scored. Smith and Scheller both went out from short to first.

In the fourth and sixth innings George Washington went out in one, two, three order. For Georgetown in the fourth inning Drennan got to first on Van Vliet's error of his liner. Larkin, the next batter up, smashed the ball to right for a homer. White hit safely to center. Hart hit to short and White was thrown out at second. Morgan fanned.

In the fifth and sixth innings Georgetown did nothing, but in the seventh the ball was going in every direction, and the fielders of George Washington had fine practice in the line laid down by Coach Bryan to the sprinters. Hart, the first man up, smashed the ball for a homer to right field. Morgan hit to center for two bases. Burns hit to center and Price muffed the ball, Morgan going to third. Smith hit to short and the ball was again muffed, Morgan scoring. Scheller went out from third to first. Drennan hit to short and Burns was thrown out at third. Larkin hit to right field and Drennan and Smith scored. Keane walked. White was hit by pitched ball. Hart hit to center and both Larkin and Keane scored. Morgan made the third out by flying out to left field.

In the seventh things looked better for the buff and blue. Price went out from short to first. Bradley walked. Stevenson got to first on Scheller's error of his liner. Bielaski hit to center for two bases and Bradley and Stevenson scored. Weber flied out to Hart. McMahon reached first on Morgan's error of his hit to third. Asquith hit to left and Bielaski scored. Van Vliet struck out and the side was out. In the next two inning neither side scored.

Tennis Club

The first meeting in 1905 of the Tennis Club was held Tuesday afternoon, April 25, at 4:30 in the College building.

Owing to the meager notice only the College contingent came out. This number, large as it was, is easily sufficient to insure a hearty support of the game but when the other departments send out their enthusiasts this club should be one of the best supported and most universally enjoyed in the University.

The departure from the city of the former secretary and the subsequent loss of the original constitution made it necessary to draft another for adoption by the Club.

Miss Clara V. Barber, vice-president of the club acting as chairman clearly set forth these facts in her opening address and suggested that the club take the necessary action. Upon motion Miss Barber appointed the following committee to serve and report to the club on Friday afternoon the 21st: Mr. C. W. Whitmore, chairman; Mr. A. D. Stivers, Miss Jennie Moyer and Miss E. H. McCleary.

After suggestion by Miss Barber it was moved that a committee be appointed to confer with Dr. Phillips and the Athletic Council to ascertain the position the Tennis Club would have in the Athletic Association and what help the club might look for from this association.

Messrs. F. W. Albert and Wm. J. Turken-ton were appointed to this committee.

The club then adjourned until Friday the 28th at 4:30.

The meeting of the Tennis Club for Friday the 28th was postponed until Monday, May 1st, West Hall, College Building, at 4:30, owing to many unavoidable conflicting engagements on the part of those interested.

Freshmen vs. Western

On Tuesday last the Freshman ball team played its fifth game, winning from the Western High School by a score of 4 to 3. Considering the lack of practice the first year men put up a good game. Brooks pitched well and kept his hits scattered. The feature of the game was a fine one-handed catch by Buell in the ninth inning when with two men on bases he robbed Morse of what looked to be a sure home run.

The lineup:

| G. W. U.            | W. H. S.               |
|---------------------|------------------------|
| Glennon, 1b. ....   | Morse, p and 1b ....   |

Batteries—Brookes and Kieler, G. W. U.; Morse, Hodgson and Radford, W. H. S.

Freshmen vs. Technical

On Friday the same team went up against the boys from the Technical High School and lost to them 8 to 5. For the first six innings the Freshmen looked like sure winners, but Brookes, who was pitching let down and with errors of the team, the High School drove in enough runs to land the game.

The score;

Davis Prize Speaking

The exercises of the Davis Prize Speaking were held last Wednesday evening in University Hall.

The Hall was crowded to the doors by the friends of the contestants and the orations were listened to with the greatest attention. There many more contestants than last year and the orations were uniformly excellent. The Girls' Glee Club furnished the music for the evening.

At the conclusion of the program the committee on award selected by the President's Council and consisting of William Bruce King, Mason Noble Richardson and John Wesley Langley, made the following awards:

First Prize—Otto Louis Veerhoff, "The Muscovite Peril."

Second Prize—Amy Louise Warn, "The Evolution of the American Ideal."

Third Prize—George Foster Harley, "The Character of Brutus in Shakespeare's tragedy of Julius Caesar."

Honorable mention for composition. William Frank Summy "The Bravest of the Brave."

Honorable mention for delivery, Mark Rittenhouse Woodward, "Is Selfishness a Delusion."

Co Ed Notes

Owing to examinations which will engage a number of the girls next Wednesday evening, the meeting of the Woman's League will be postponed till one week from that date. As this is the last meeting of the year it is hoped that large numbers of the girls will be present to seal the success and attainments of the League this year by their interest.

Alpha Kappa Kappa

A number of students in the Medical Department recently organized themselves into a chapter of the Alpha Kappa Kappa fraternity in this city.

As a result of their efforts Dr. George Cook, the grand secretary of the fraternity, visited Washington last week, and Thursday evening installed the new chapter Alpha Zeta, which is No. 29 on the roll of the order.

Friday evening the members met to celebrate the success of their organization, and after a drill in the ritual and customs of the fraternity all assembled at Freund's café, where a supper was served and addresses were listened to. The guests of the evening were Dr. A. F. A. King and Dr. Corley, of this city, who are graduate members of the Alpha Kappa Kappa, and Dr. George Cook, of Hartford, N. H., the grand secretary of the order. Mr. Robert Holmes of the second year medical class is a member of the Alpha Kappa Kappa Chapter from Dartmouth College.

The officers of the fraternity elected this year are: Mr. F. E. Winter, president; T. H. Legg, vice-president; L. B. McAfee, treasurer; A. G. Compton, recording secretary; C. M. Wallace, corresponding secretary; C. V. Grant, chaplain; J. B. Waring, marshal, and C. B. Conklin, warden. The other members of the fraternity are: Messrs. E. C. Stevenson, J. S. Clifford, A. C. Stanley, B. C. Perry, J. S. Forsythe, R. M. Goss, L. S. Shapiro, H. C. Jorgenson and N. P. Lake.

Kappa Alpha

Monday night, April 24, an Easter dance was given by the Kappa Alpha fraternity, Kappa Alpha house, 1931 K St., N. W.

This was the closing dance of a very pleasant and lively season for the Kappa Alphas, and was one of the most enjoyable given this year. Quite a large party of Kappa Alphas and their friends threaded the misty mazes of the dizzying dance until a late hour, when delicious refreshments enhanced the pleasure of the occasion. The orchestra furnished delightful music, and Mrs. Dodge as chaperone was one of the most popular of all the party.

This has been one of the most active years that Alpha Nu Chapter has known in social matters—beginning with a reception to the first year students of the University, which was a success in every detail and gave the new men a pleasant introduction into the life of the University, it has included, besides dances weekly smokers, and other entertainments of a minor character, a "Convivial" on the evening of December 17, which was attended by alumni prominent in the affairs of State and the councils of the nations: men in high in the ranks of Kappa Alpha, and many representatives from our neighboring chapters, an "open house" at New Year's, and a mammoth reception and banquet on the evening of March 3 to which all Kappa Alphas were invited. One other event closes this most brilliant and successful season: this is to be a reception to the base ball team from the V. P. I. on the evening of May 13, and it is expected this will be a fit closing for Kappa Alpha's social season.

Theta Delta Chi

On Tuesday evening, April 25, the Chi Deuteron Charge of Theta Delta Chi gave a dance at the fraternity house, at which about twenty-five couples were present. Mrs. Albert and Mrs. West were the chaperons.

Pi Beta Phi

The girls of Pi Beta Phi were honored in having as their guest last week, Miss Anna Morris Jackson, the president of Alpha Province and head of the eastern chapters of the fraternity.

Last Thursday evening Columbia Alpha Chapter of Pi Beta Phi gave a reception in the college building in honor of Chi Omega. The invitation list included the faculty and their wives and a large number of the friends of the fraternities in college and out. The receiving line stood in the library which was decorated with blossoms till it looked like a Japanese garden. The line consisted of Miss McPherson, president of Columbia Alpha and Miss Jackson, President of Alpha Province of Pi Beta Phi; Miss Droop, President of Phi Alpha Chapter of Chi Omega; Mrs. D. Ker-foot Shute, and Miss Emma Harper Turner, President of the Washington Alumnae Association of Pi Beta Phi and former grand president of the national organization. Refreshments were served in West Hall, and the guests merrily danced the later hours of the evening away.

On Friday, April 28, the college members of Pi Beta Phi were the guests of their alumnae at the annual fraternity banquet, held in honor of Founders' Day at the Tea Cup Inn. The banquet table, beautiful with its profusion of carnations and frat colors taxed the capacity of the rooms and the fifty-five Pi Phis gathered about it made the evening merry with reminiscences, toasts, and songs. The banquet celebrated the sixteenth year of the existence of the local chapter in the University, and the thirty-eighth year of the founding of the national fraternity. Many congratulatory messages were received from friends in this city and elsewhere.

EWALT R. KATES 20 PRINTER
728 13th STREET

It is almost impossible at this time of the year to secure news for the paper. The student reporters, with the exception of base ball and track athletics, are at a stand still and the students themselves are at work preparing for the final examinations and have little time for anything else. The senior examinations are now under way and will continue until the tenth of the month. The majority of the editors of the HATCHET being seniors, the paper suffers to a great extent from the fact of these examinations.

The Georgetown game was something of a disappointment, but just stop to think how much better it was than that of last year. Keep plugging away and ours will come.

The next issue of the paper, on Wednesday, May 10th, will be the last issue of the current volume of the HATCHET. All announcements, notices, etc. for the remainder of the year are expected to appear in this number. To do so they must be in at the regular time set for copy, Tuesday at ten o'clock. Anything not in by that time cannot be published. So send your news in promptly.

In this issue will also be given the plans for the continuance and improvement of the HATCHET for the next year.

Inter-Society Debate

On last Friday evening, April 28th, the third inter-society debate between the Needham and Columbian Debating Societies for the scholastic year 1904-1905 was held in University Hall. This debate, the third and last of the series for the year, resulted in a victory for the Columbian Society and also gave them the victory in the series for the year. The first debate was won by Columbian, the second by Needham and this one was the deciding contest. Both sides were well prepared and determined to fight hard for the decision and the debate was one of the best that has been heard at the University.

The question was, Resolved, That it is detrimental to the best interests of the United States to hold the Philippines Islands.

The Needham Society, represented by Donald C. Dobbins, of Illinois, Chas. F. Christian, of Indiana and Orin H. Woods, Wyoming, had the affirmative, while the Columbian team consisting of Morris Stern, of Wisconsin; Donald H. McLean, of New Jersey and Irvin S. Pepper, of Iowa defended the negative. Mr. M. W. Patterson, chairman of the Executive Committee of the Needham Society, acted as presiding officer.

The judges, Hon. Chas. H. Robb, Hon. J. W. Langley, and Dr. C. C. Swisher, of the University, awarded the decision to the negative, giving Irving S. Pepper the first honors and C. F. Christian second.

University Congress

The final meeting of the present session of University Congress was called to order by Speaker Bone in University Hall last Saturday evening. On motion of Mr. Bullock, of Virginia, the rules were suspended and consideration of an extra session this summer undertaken. After some discussion it was decided to hold an extra session beginning the first Friday evening in June. Speaker Bone appointed Mr. Shelton, of Mississippi, a committee of one to consult the University authorities and obtain necessary permission for the use of the hall.

On motion of Mr. Caldwell, of Tennessee, the clerk was instructed to defray all proper expenses of the extra session out of the funds of the present Congress.

The bill repealing acts of Congress which permit the circulation of national bank notes was laid on the table. The chair then recognized Mr. Riddell, of Washington, on the resolution favoring a sale of the Philippines. Mr. Riddell contended that tropical colonization deprived the nation of its best blood. He argued that the germs of self-Government were absent in the Philippines, that sovereignty of some power would be necessary for many years and that Japan understood the peculiar problems of those people as we never could.

Mr. Shommer, of Wisconsin, opposing the measure, contended that the time was not yet ripe for sale of the islands, contended that they were of value in themselves and vital to our enforcement of the open-door policy in the Far East. Mr. Merritt, of Arkansas, also in opposition, labelled the sale of the islands as unpatriotic. He contended that we owed the islands the duty of civilizing the Filipinos, a duty we should not shirk. He contended that no pecuniary considerations should shake us from the determination to fulfil that obligation, but that in retaining the Philippines we would both do our duty and reap pecuniary benefit.

Mr. Everett, of Maryland, in closing the debate devoted most of his time to rebuttal, one of his strongest contentions being that the advocates of a sale of the Philippines were as patriotic as its opponents and that a sale of the islands to Japan for $50,000,000 would be the best way out of a bad bargain. The resolution passed.

The Congress designated Mr. Caldwell, of Tennessee to call the extra session to order the first Friday in June.

Virginia Debate

In view of the fact that there were only eight competitors in the first preliminary Debate to determine the make-up of the team which will debate against the University of Virginia, the judges have deemed it advisable to select only four speakers from those who competed Tuesday. There will be, however, another preliminary Debate at the opening of the College year next fall, and at that time any students of the University, including those who spoke Tuesday but who were not selected for the Final Preliminaries, may compete for participation in the Final Preliminary Debate.

From among those who spoke Tuesday evening the judges have selected the following gentlemen as entitled to participate in the Final Preliminaries:

Burnstein, Gates, Miller and Newmeyer.
